

US Adjustment of Status

Once you have married your fiancée who arrived in the US on her K-1 Visa she would have to apply for an adjustment of status after you have married. Your wife who is now a lawful permanent resident is granted the privilege of permanently living and working in the United States. If you want to become a lawful permanent resident based on the fact that you have a relative who is a citizen of the United States or a relative who is a lawful permanent resident, you must go through a multi-step process.

The following might be needed by USCIS :

- Application for Alien Relative (I-130) (not necessary for K-1 applicants);
- Application to Register Permanent Residence (Form I-485);
- Biographical information (Form G-325);
- Medical Exam Sheet is not required, if your spouse has had a medical exam based in K-1 visa;
- Two color photos taken within 30 days;
- Evidence of inspection, admission or parole into the United States (Form I-94, Arrival Departure Record);
- Affidavit of Support (Form I-864 with supporting documents);
- Authorization for employment (Form I-765)
- Travel Parole (Form I-131)
